

The Junction Neighbourhood Centre

The Junction Neighbourhood Centre (JNC) provides a diverse range of services and support to disadvantaged groups across local government areas in Bondi Junction (Waverley), Randwick and Maroubra.

Operating for 40 years, JNC has continuously strived to provide responsive and meaningful services to meet identified community needs and seek to develop community participation in the development of these services.

The Junction Neighbourhood Centre Inc. is a not for profit organisation resourced through government funding from Department of Social Services, NSW Family and Community Services, local government, community grants, donation, and some sponsorship.

Randwick Clubs & Activities

If you would like to become more active and connect socially with others in your community, or you know someone who may benefit from more social interaction, please see our social activities and outings listed below. People living in the Randwick LGA are eligible to attend the groups listed below:

Art Appreciation Excursions (monthly TBA)

Are you an art enthusiast? JNC Randwick's Art Appreciation group travels to different galleries and museums in Sydney. This group runs monthly: dates are 13/8, 17/9, 22/10, 20/11, 10/12. Give us a call for more information on each excursion venue. Meet us at The JNC Randwick – 2 Albert St (cnr Avoca St), Randwick at 10am.

Walk Randwick's Parks, Social Walking Group: fortnightly on Wednesdays 1.45-3.00pm

Socialise and reap the benefits of walking and socialising in natural environments and boost your mental health and physical well-being. Walk Randwick Parks is a friendly, healthy and fun activity. All are welcome. We meet fortnightly to explore local parks and coastal walks in the Randwick area. Please note that we walk up and down stairs on coastal walks.

Free Naam Yoga: Wednesdays 1pm-2pm

Naam Yoga is a unique practice that links movement, sound, meditation and breath techniques to create optimum health, strength and vitality for the body, mind and spirit, activating and awakening your highest potential. Free Naam Yoga takes place every Wednesday at The Hope Uniting Church in Maroubra Junction. Led by our enthusiastic volunteer Jennifer, this unique blend of gentle cardio, chanting and mudras is invigorating and enjoyable. Jennifer herself describes it as "Yoga Medicine". Note there is a Registration and Medical form that needs to be filled out prior to attending a Free Naam Yoga class.

Creative Writing Workshops: Tuesdays 10am-12pm

Creative writing workshops are back! Starting on the 4th August the group will begin a new chapter in their story. Led by Adult Literacy Teacher Estelle Rozinsky, the group is supportive, multicultural and most of all productive with the exciting news that they will be publishing a book at the end of the year. All levels of experience are welcome and all materials are provided.

Book Club: Every Second Wednesday of the Month 2.00-3.00pm

Do you enjoy reading? Do you also like to discuss literature? At the JNC Randwick we'll discuss a new piece of literature each month. Please come along and have a cuppa with us!

Games Club: Thursdays 1.30pm-3.00pm

Does playing games every week sound like fun to you? If so, please come along to our games club where we'll be playing a variety of board games, card games, guessing games, puzzles, word games, conversation games every Thursday. Games are provided, but feel free to bring in your own for everyone to enjoy.

All are welcome.

Drawing Club: Wednesdays at 10.30am-12.30pm

Want to practice your drawing? Then our drawing club is the place for you! Whether you're interested in colouring, stencilling, illustrating, craft or just plain drawing then please come along to our weekly drawing club. A volunteer Art Teacher is on board to help with your art and drawing so please bring your creative ideas along to our Randwick centre each Wednesday.

Community Café: Fortnightly on Tuesdays 2pm-3pm

We drink coffee, tea and eat biscuits. We also watch movies, TV shows and play card games. We have a lot of fun and chat about things happening in the world around us. So why not join us? All are welcome!
