

The South Randwick Community Hub
Partnership presents

Language and Development: Children and Bilingualism

Learn about:

- Typical language development and recognising issues
- Ways to encourage your child's language development
- Easy guidelines on raising a child in a bilingual environment.

Presented by Speech Pathologists from the Sydney Children's Hospital at Randwick.

When: Tuesday 8 September, 10am-12pm

Where: Maroubra Junction Public School,
Storey St

Please contact The Junction Neighbourhood Centre Family
Programs on 9349 8200 or by emailing familysupport@jnc.org.au for enquiries and to register.

Registrations are essential. This is a free event.

Limited childminding available.

Family Programs

families^{nsw}
supporting families to raise children