About The Junction Neighbourhood Centre

Strengthening communities and building connections

Our Statement of Purpose

We believe that being socially connected improves people's wellbeing. We listen to our local communities and work with them to deliver critical services and opportunities for social connection.

Our Vision

To be a leading provider in South Eastern Sydney of services that enhance the wellbeing and resilience of individuals and communities with the best quality service delivery.

What We Do

The Junction Neighbourhood Centre (JNC) provides a diverse range of community services and programs for the communities in Eastern Sydney, with a focus on people who are socially isolated, disadvantaged and vulnerable. As a not-for-profit organisation operating for over 45 years, the focus of our work is strengthening communities and creating connections. We have community centres in Maroubra, Glebe and Bondi Junction which provide community information and places for the community to meet and participate in a wide range of groups, classes and programs. We have capacity building projects targeting the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and people who are socially isolated. We also offer specialised services for older people and their carers, for families with children under 13, for women and children who are experiencing domestic and family violence and learning and development services for agencies in the region.

More details about our programs and services can be found at www.jnc.org.au
