Bondi Beach Incident Crisis & 24/7 Support Lines

We are shocked and deeply saddened to hear of the horrific terrorist attack at Bondi Beach. Our thoughts are with all those who were present, members of the Jewish community, and the whole community. We have no tolerance for antisemitism, racial hatred or violence in our communities. We must stand together to actively pursue social cohesion in our communities.

We know that people will be affected in a variety of ways and are aware that people will grieve in their own ways. Please reach out for support.

The below lines are available for community members, times and availability may change during this period. We will do our best to keep our directory as up to date as possible.
